Come take a look at this lovely 4-bedroom 3 bathroom with an office capable of converting into a 5th bedroom home, using our 3D Virtual Tour. This 2-car garage rancher with a basement, is in the coveted West Point Subdivision in Longmont. Nestled in a nice established neighborhood, this home offers a great location in a quiet community. Near all major shopping, dining, entertainment, the local hospital, interstate access and more. The interior offers plenty of storage inside & out, living area has a natural wood burning fireplace, formal dining room has skylights and French doors out to the covered patio. The inside offers natural light, and has a bright kitchen with under counter lighting and nice modern style white cabinetry. Basement is a great size, and contains the laundry room. There is a remodeled main bathroom with granite, and fresh paint throughout the home. Backyard is large with ample entertainment possibilities and includes a shed. An added perk is additional backyard parking behind the home! This property offers a great location and neighborhood, a great backyard, and a nice interior layout. Don't miss your chance to come take a tour!
