Immediately to the right, you will find an office with french doors. On the main level you will also find a mud room and half bath. The main level also contains an open-concept living room, kitchen, and dining room area. The kitchen is one of the highlights of this home with its stone countertops, upgraded appliances, granite drop sink, and large butler's pantry. A beautiful staircase leads to the second floor where you will find your master suite, the laundry room, a secondary bathroom, and three secondary bedrooms.
